July 2010 Newsletter

What a beautiful June we have enjoyed. During which, we experienced our first three day Course, up to and including Navigator level 3 standard. This involved a private group of four very special people from The Metropolitan Police, who all passed their NNAS GOLD – many congratulations to them, it was hard work but good fun for all of us.

CONGRATULATIONS must also go to PETER BLACKBURN and TONY DEMPSTER, who passed their NNAS BRONZE in June at the end of a very enjoyable Nav 1 course.

We have several private courses booked during July but our next main course is:-

NAVIGATOR LEVEL 2 and PRACTICE DAY

17th & 18th July 2010 - Don't forget if you wish to join in our Night Navigation Course in November, you will need the skills acquired during Nav 2. An essential course, with techniques to help you should you get caught in bad weather. More skills for your 'Navigator Tool Box'.

NAVIGATOR LEVEL 1 and PRACTICE DAY

7th & 8th August 2010 - Our next date for those wishing to begin or refresh their navigational training. A chance to take your NNAS Bronze, if you so wish.

NAVIGATOR LEVEL 3 and PRACTICE DAY

9th & 10th October 2010 - We welcome those who wish to participate in this course, which is a bit more intense, with both days out on the Moor. Good grounding for those who wish to work towards their Walking Group Leader and/or go on to take their NNAS Gold assessment at a later date.

NNAS ASSESSMENTS

We need to know names please of those who wish to take their NNAS GOLD assessment, so that we can organize a suitable day for you all.

PRIVATE NAVIGATION DAYS

Many people work during the weekends and find it difficult to attend our normal courses. So, if any of you wish to enjoy a day of Private Navigation tuition, at a date and time to suit yourself, please let us know and we will do our very best to arrange it for you. Our normal courses can also be arranged during the week for a minimum of four people.

PRACTICE

Good intentions! – always difficult to achieve, so if you would like to come along to our normal course practice days, at a cost of just £30, please let us know.

COMPASSWORKS SHOP - Please feel free to browse the Compassworks Shop on our Website.

If you require a gift for a friend or loved one and don't know what to buy - Don't forget our COMPASSWORKS VOUCHERS enabling the recipient to attend any of our courses or purchase from our shop.
